NOTRE DAME HIGH SCHOOL
301 NORTH EIGHTH QUINCY, ILLINOIS
VOLUME XIX

THIS IS NOTRE DAME

the school of Our Lady.
It is here that we live through the most unforgettable years of our lives. It is here that we come to know how to learn,
how to live,
how to laugh,
and how to love.

Our years here are happy years,
filled with fun and excitement;
so much so that we hardly realize the change in ourselves. For it is here at ND that we enter as girls but leave as women-- women who are ready, willing and able to face the future.

This book is the study of that change. For the class of '66 it is a final chapter, the climax;
for the other classes
it is but a beginning.

LEARNING

FACULTY

Eager minds seeking knowledge, willing hands needing guidance, swelling hearts finding love,
Christian souls loving God --
the world of ND seen through the eyes of its faculty.

"There is no learning that is not power."

Emerson

This past year N.D. opened its doors to a new member of her faculty--Sister M. Catherine. Exemplifying the true spirit of our school, its principal has worked in a spirit of self-sacrifice and genuine concern for each individual student.

Courteous class attention is shown in the attitude of this group of ND Freshmen.

Mrs. J. Dieker guides her students down the path of knowledge toward an understanding and appreciation of English.

The endless stream of long term assignments, interesting class discussions, and well-informed students can be traced to the insights of Sister Mary Antone.

The answers to questions about English are readily available from Sister Mary Eda.

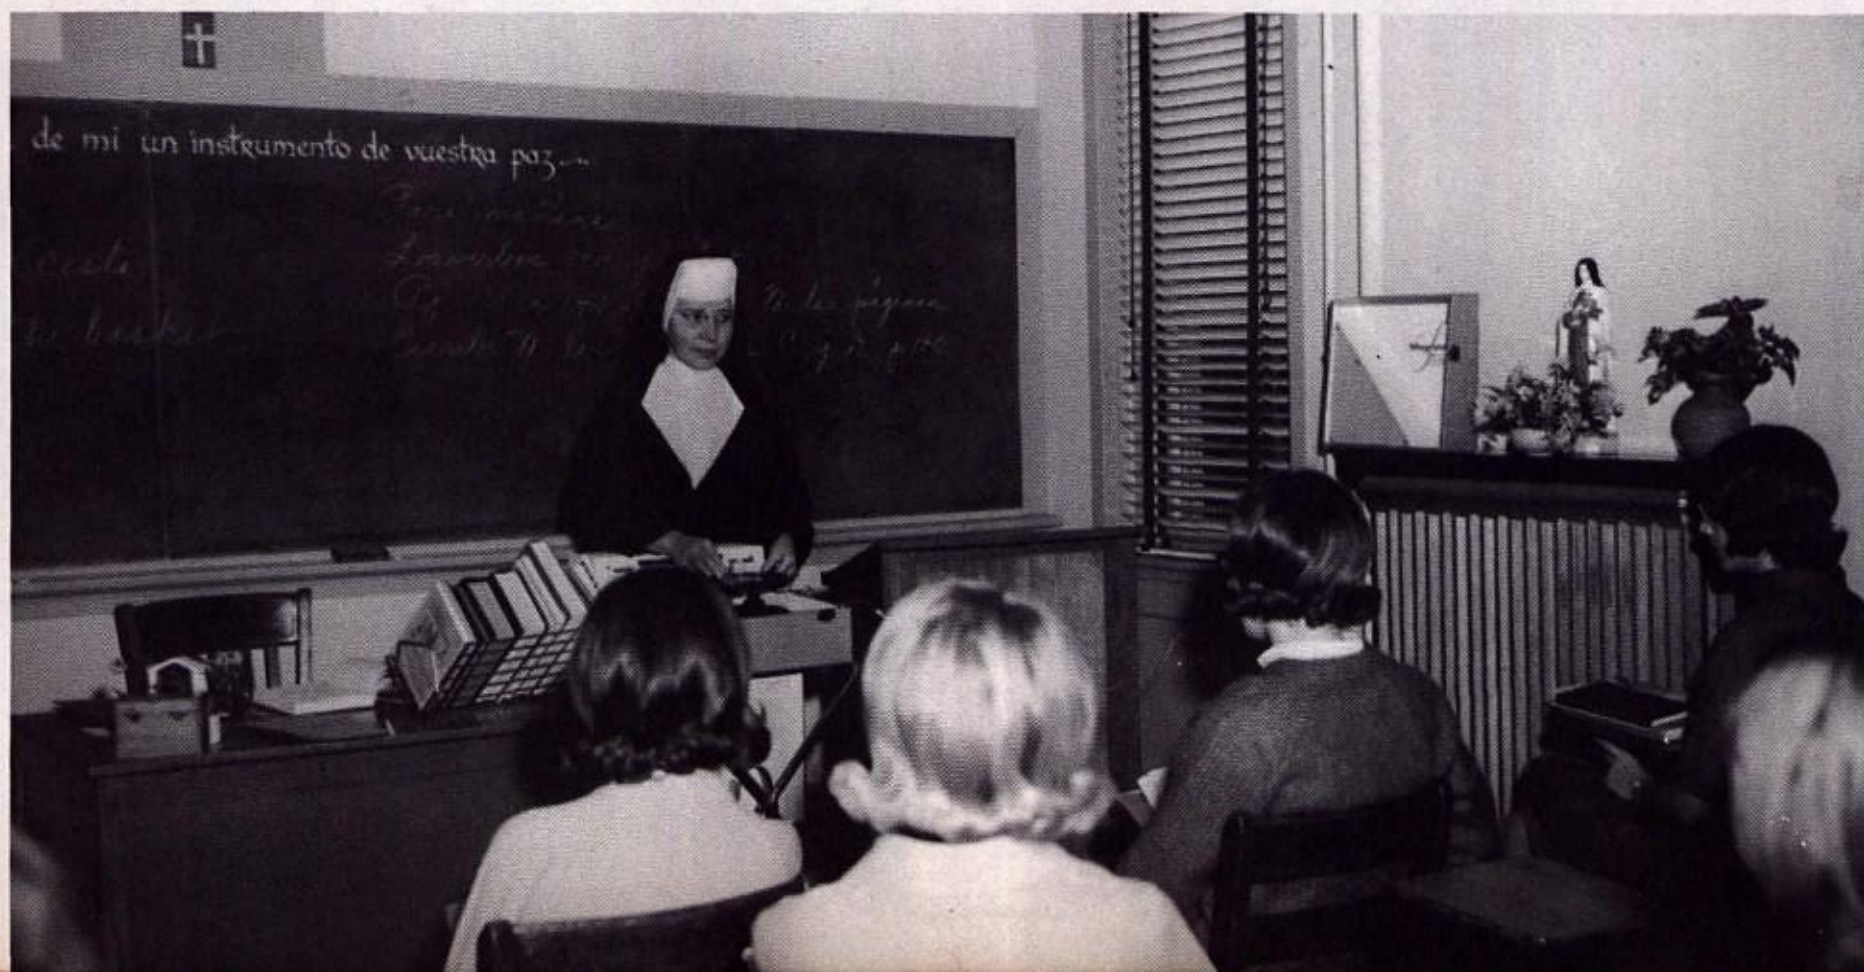

Correct and effective speaking is the goal toward which Mrs. C. Christy directs her students.

Virgil, Cicero, and Homer come alive through the efforts of Sister Mary Hope in Latin class.

Sister M. Rosaire calls upon the dimensions of sight and sound to aid her students in the knowledge of Spanish.

Sister Mary Alfred's watchful eye guides the hand of each of her apprentice artists.

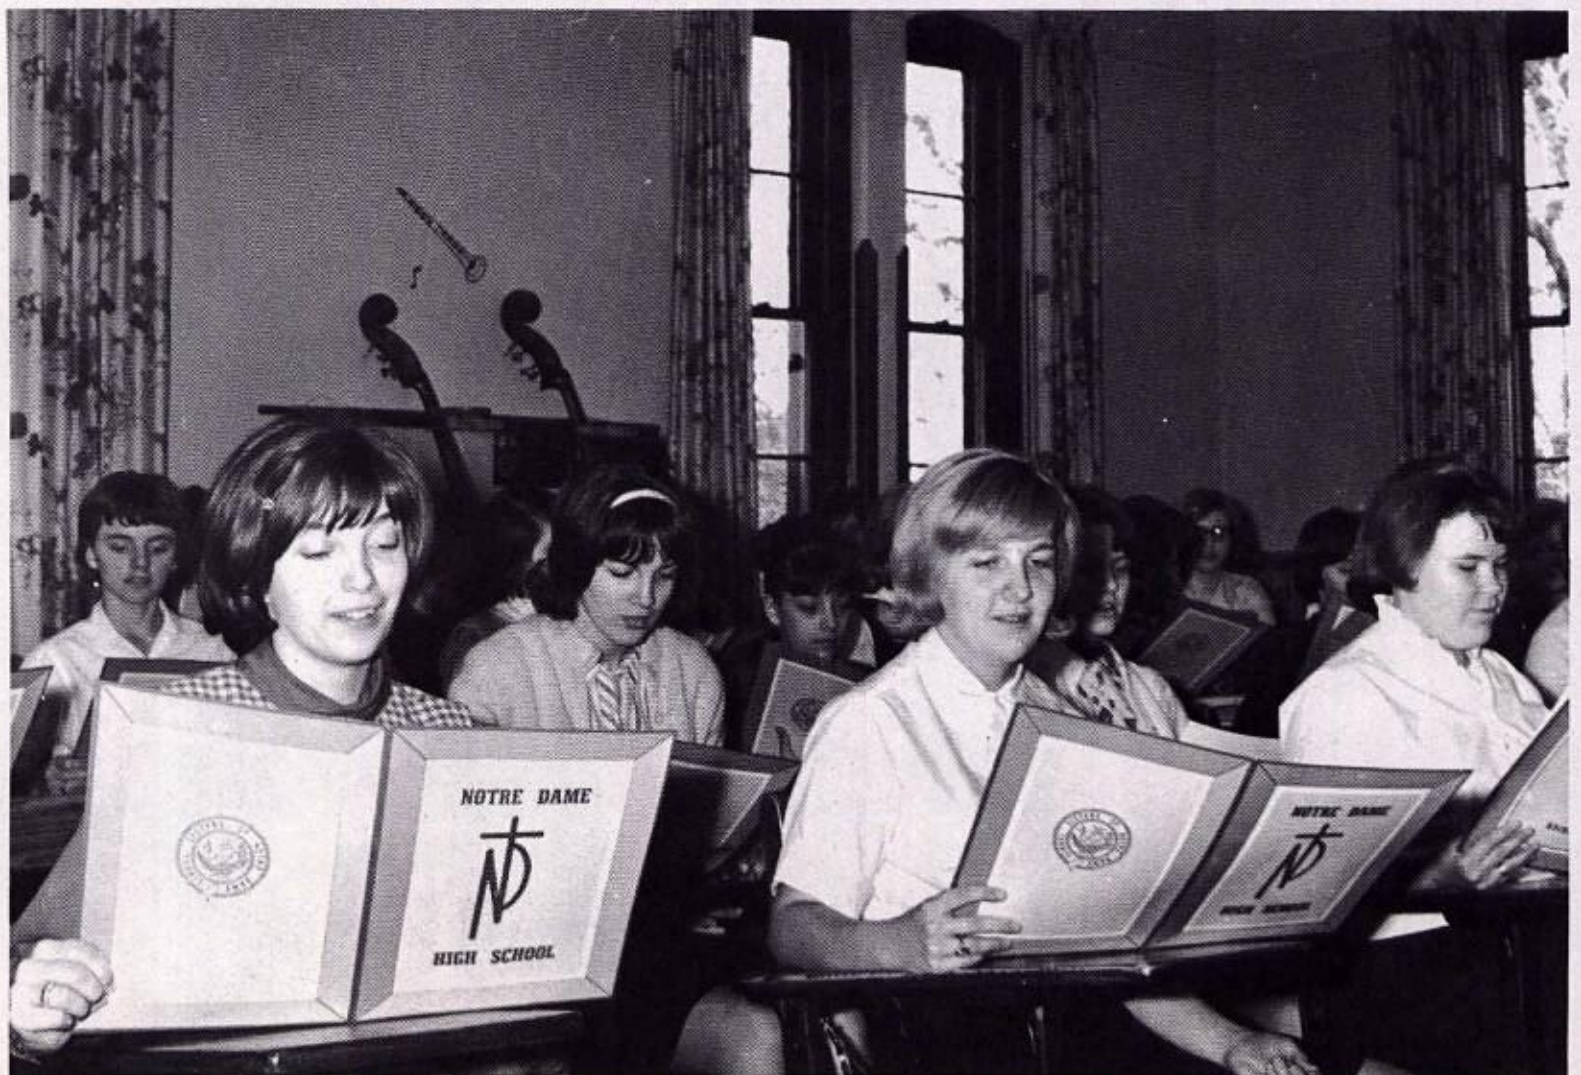

Art class becomes a scene of creativity as students dabble in paint.

Under the guidance of our Sister Mary Arthen, the music department has risen to new heights of perfection.

Here a chorus class practices for an up-and-coming event--the Spring Concert.

Sister Joellen Marie walks the "beat" of the typing room, surveying the efforts of her students.

Office practice and bookkeeping headaches are eased by Sister Mary Victor.

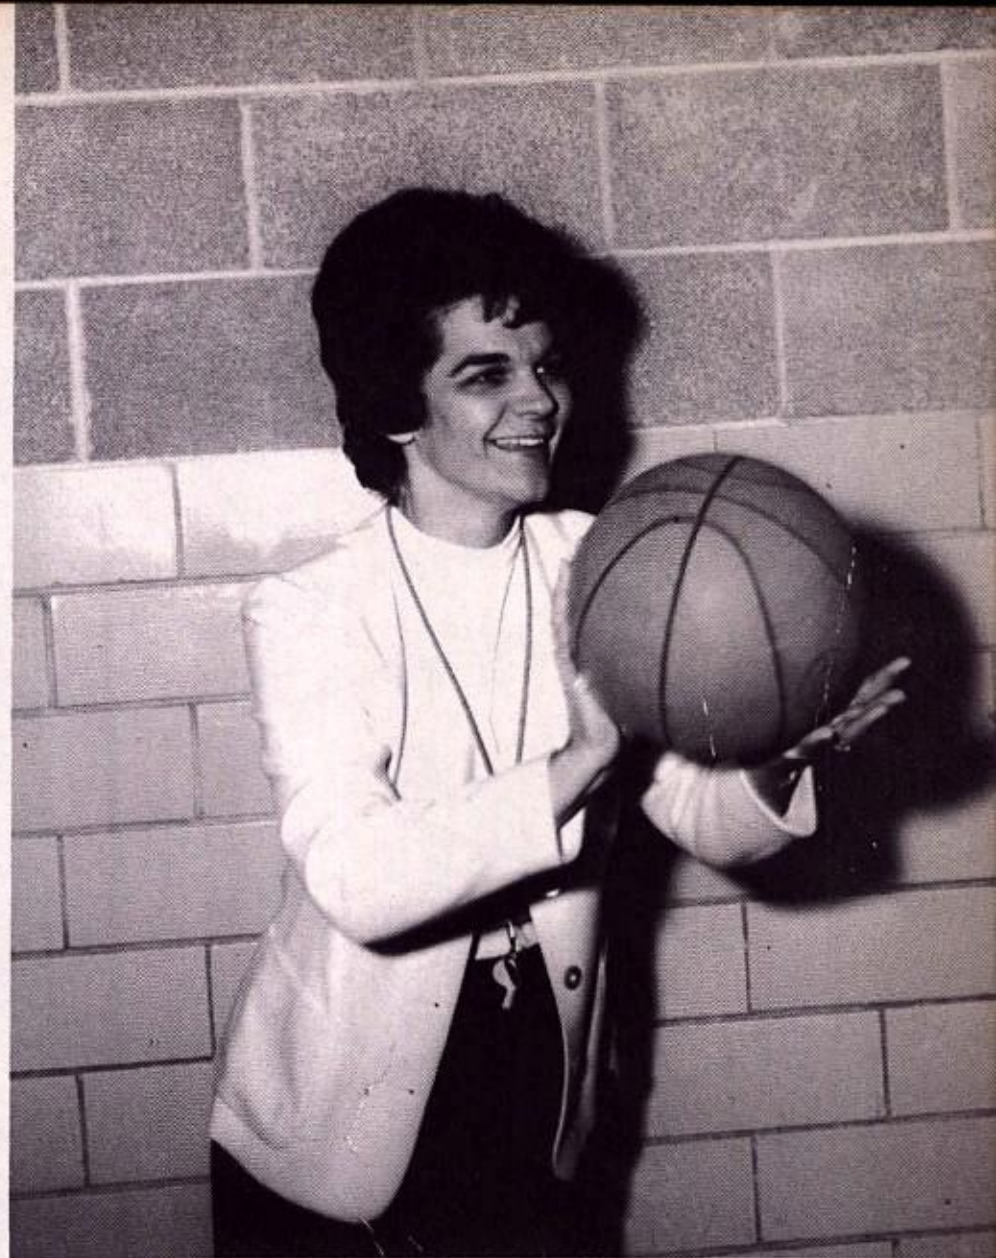

Material, thread, and needles go into the making of attractive apparel in the clothing room.

Sister M. Gustava lends a helping hand and individual attention to each of her future seamstresses.

Sister Miriam Catherine takes her students on a historical study of the world.

Mrs. R. Mohrman strives to keep each ND student's education well-rounded by helping them stay that way.

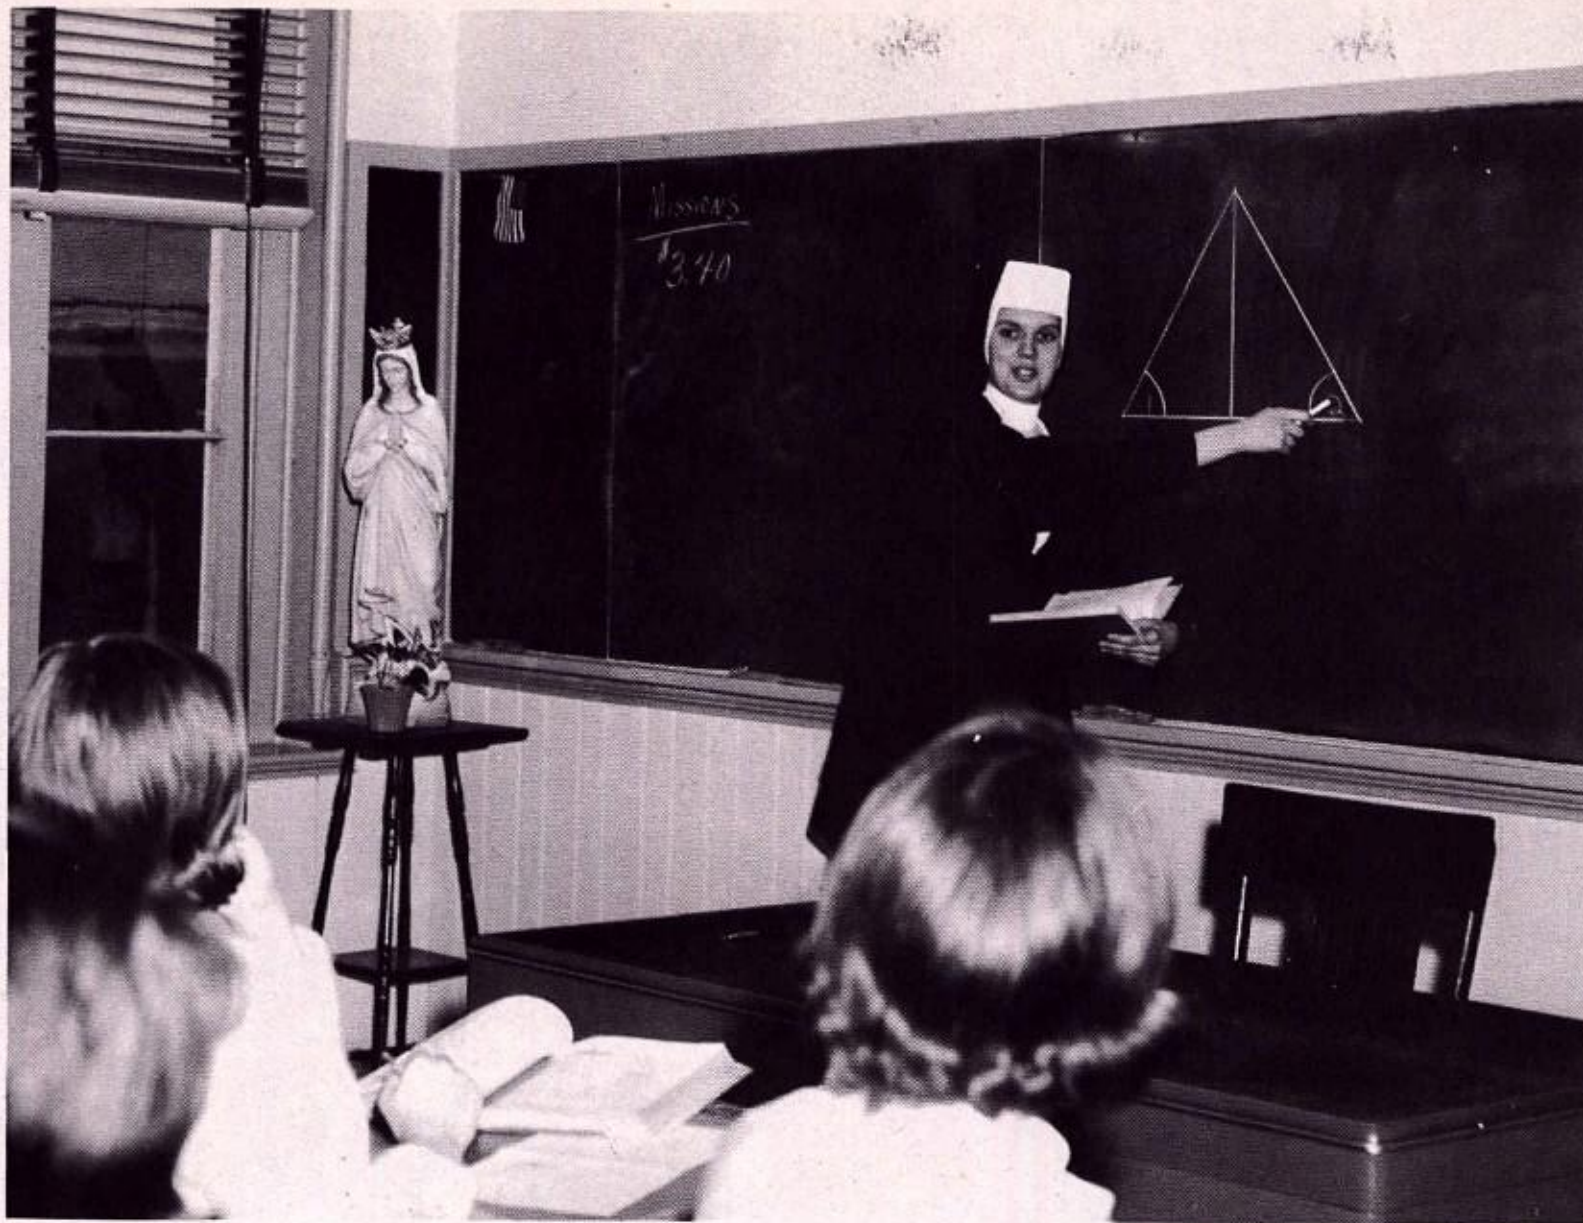

Miss Judy Geise gives fresh insights into the history of our country.

The miracle of life in all its forms is explained by Sister Marie Patrick.

The puzzle of chemical equations is solved by the scientific Sister M. Consolette.

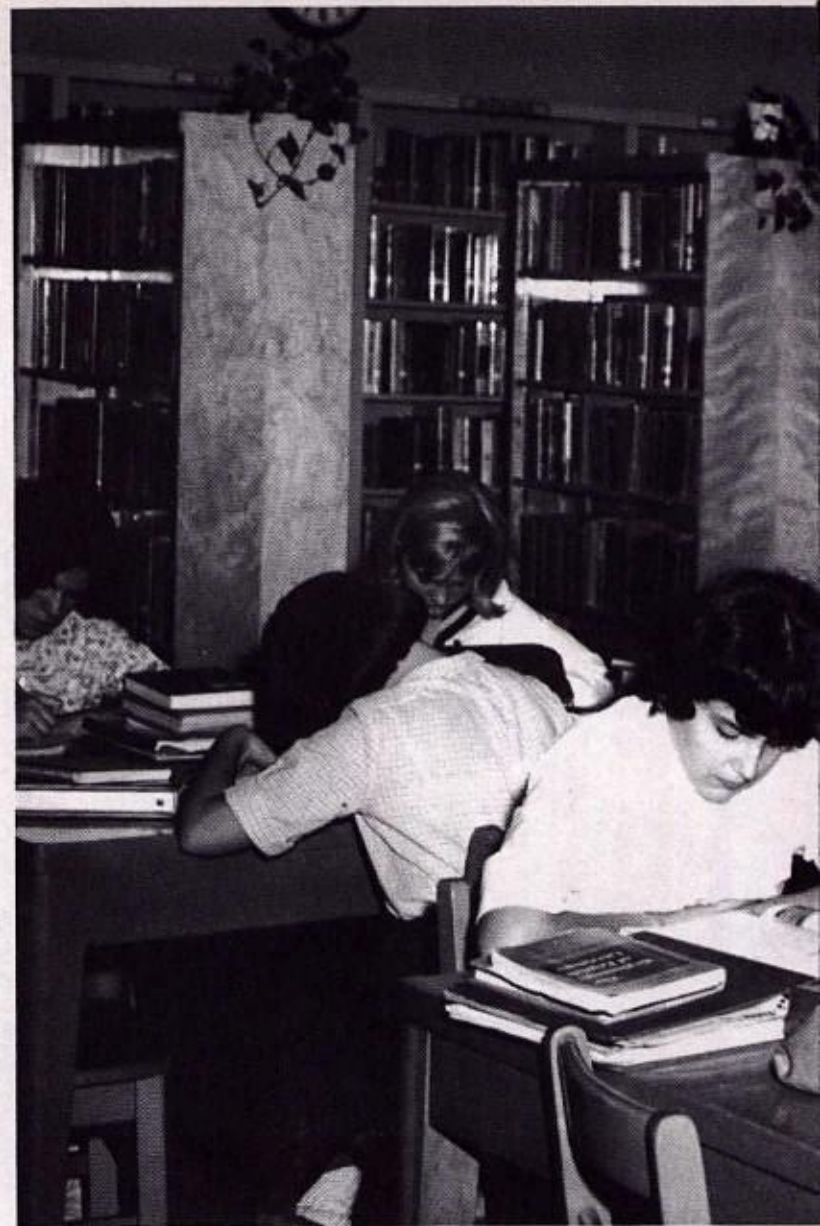

Every angle of Math can be learned in the interesting classes of Sister M. Arlene.

The challenging problems of the world of mathematics are exhibited by Mrs. C. Pellman.

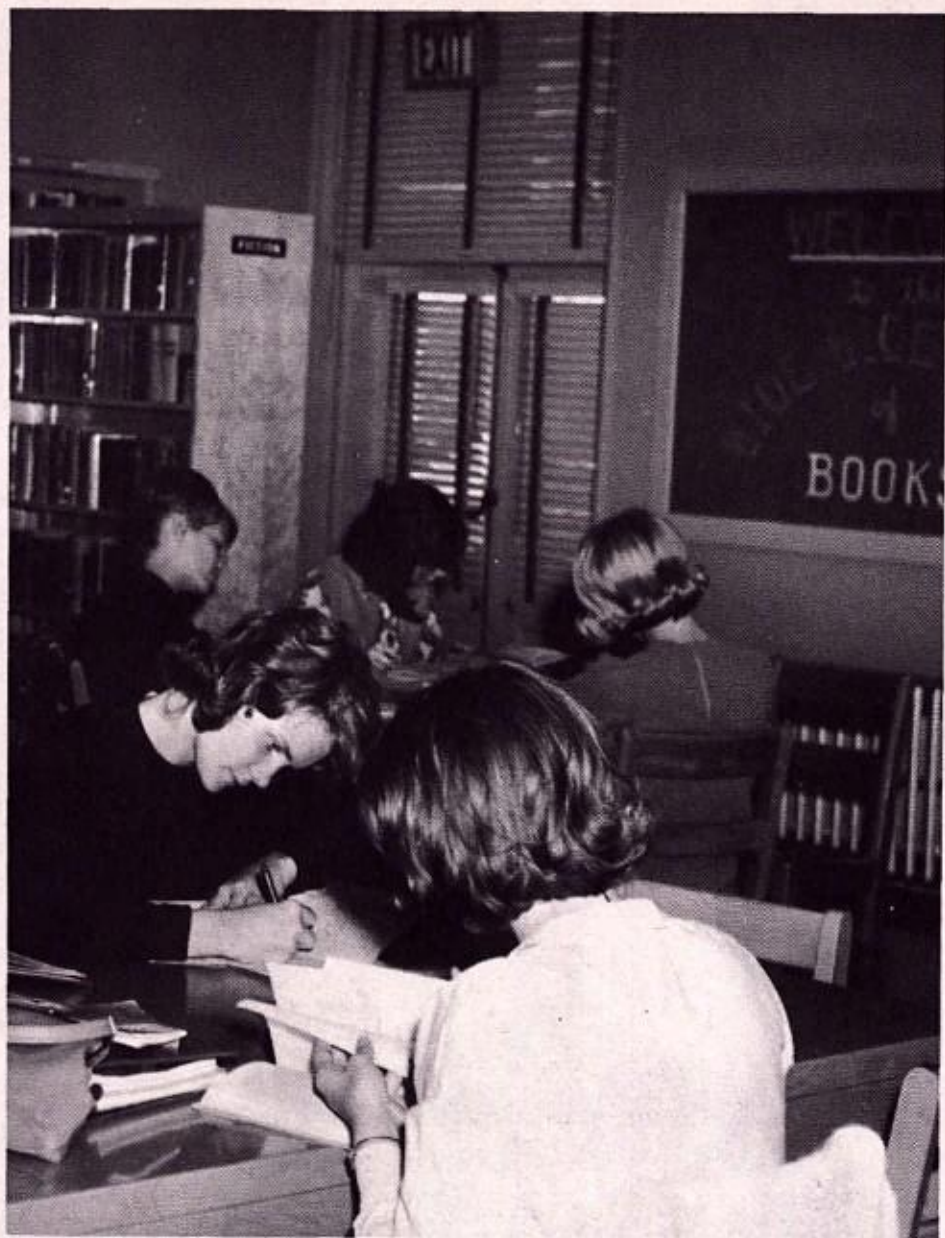

The correct spelling of a word can easily be found under the guidance of ND's librarian, Sister M. Olga.

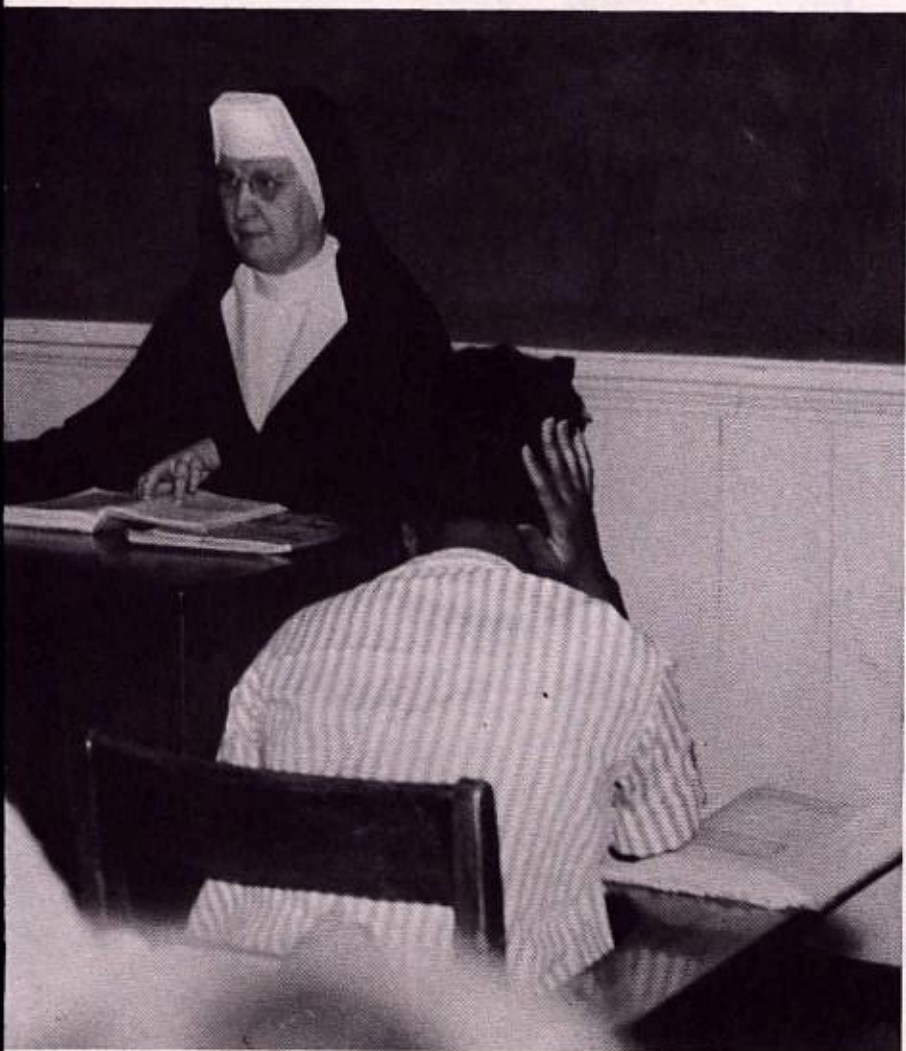

Sister M. Fidesta prepares her students for their future work in her general business class.

A quiet place with an atmosphere for independent study can be found at ND's library.

Waving a farewell to her memories of ND is our very own Sister Marie Agnese.

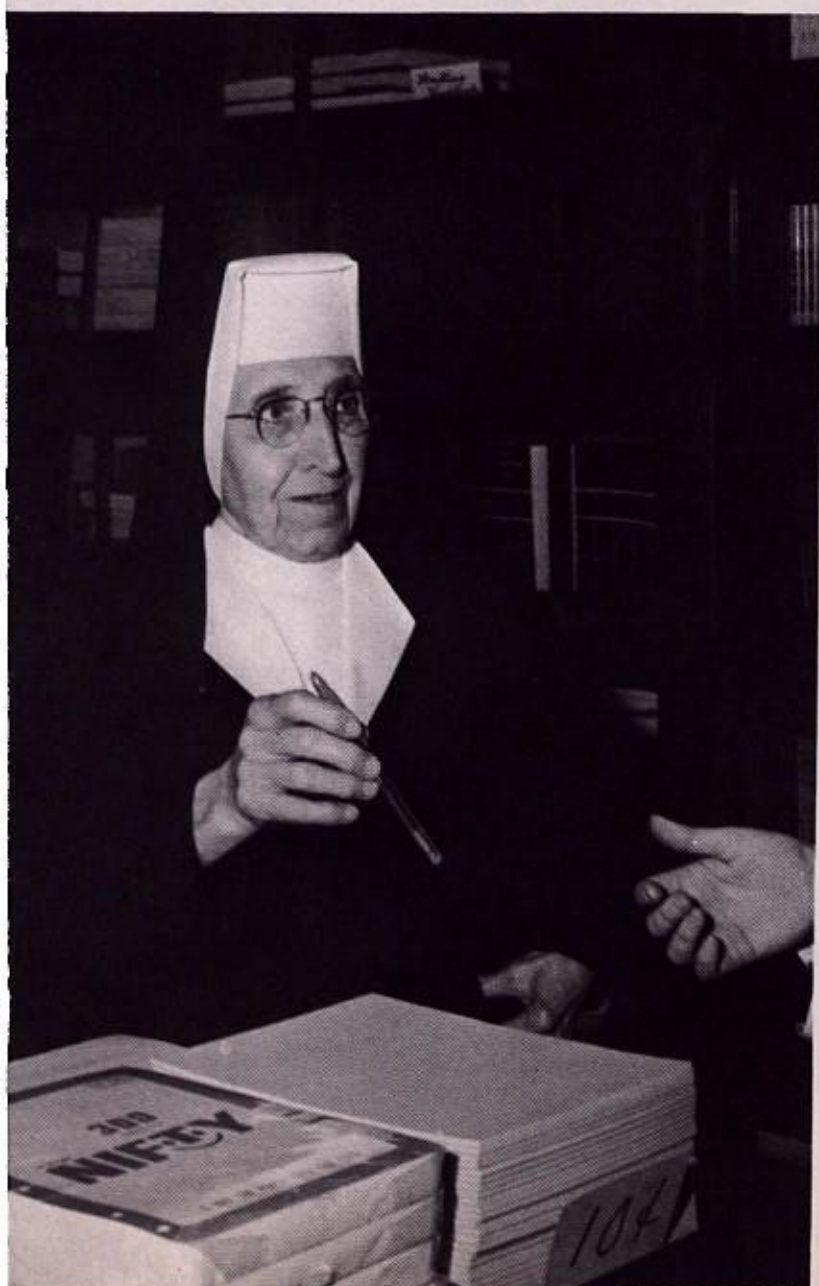

Mass confusion is exemplified by this group of typical students as they depart after a long, hard day.

Problems to be solved? Mrs. E. Happekotte has the answers and a warm greeting for each student at ND.

Minor emergencies--running out of paper, losing an ink pen--are quickly taken care of by Sister M. Doretta.

Doubts and fears about classes, careers, and college are settled by the expert guidance of Sister M. Evangelita.

Sister M. Reinholda keeps all students supplied with that basic essential--a lunch ticket.

Hamburgers anyone? Everyone's favorite period begins as Sister M. Odilo starts serving the cafeteria line.

Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Aschelman lend an expert hand in preparing a tasty dessert.

Sister Maria Amalia gives us the energy to last through a long day with her nutritious hot lunches.

Mrs. Burgess competently keeps our school clean and bright.

Mr. Dietrich and Mr. Grawe quickly respond to the needs of ND.

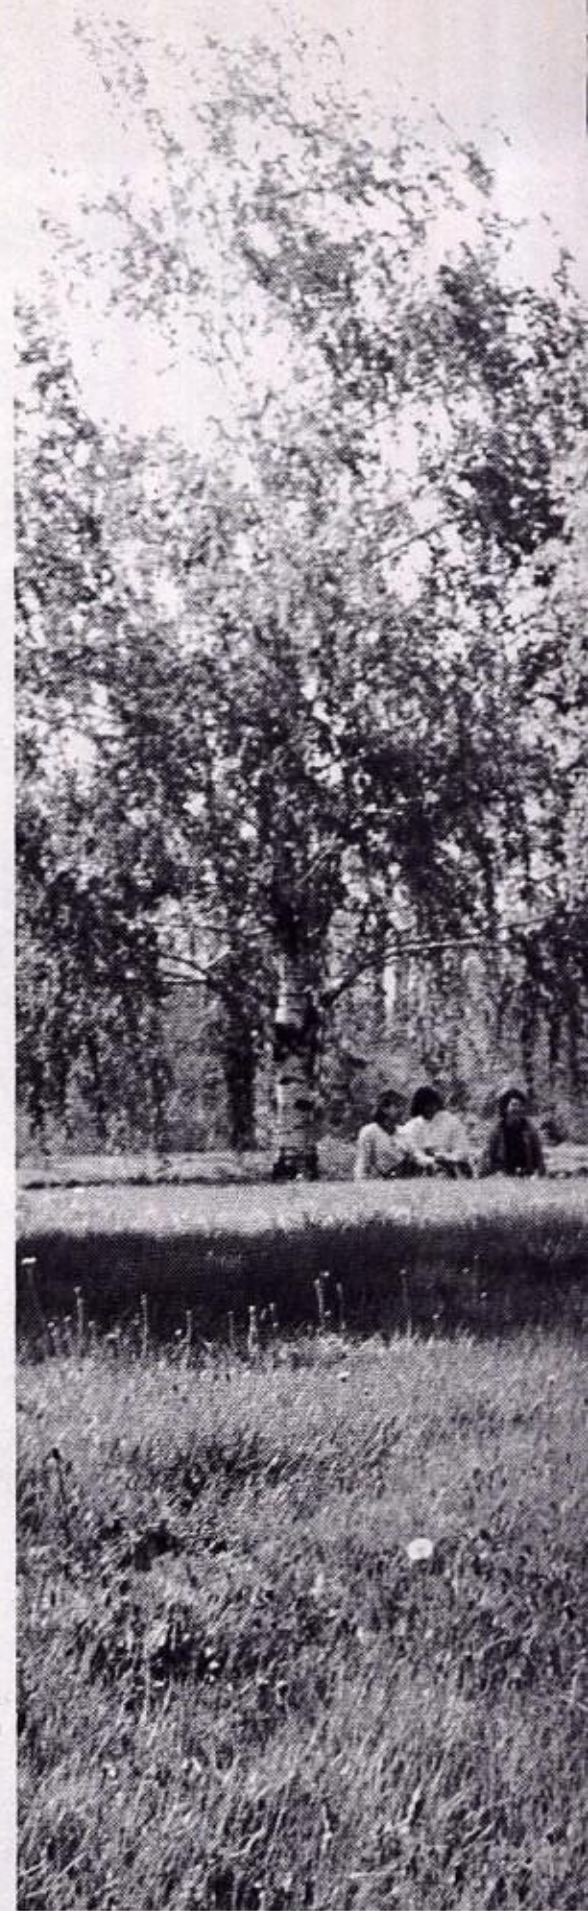

LIVING

SENIORS

A tiny boat reaches the shelter of a shore and each passenger sets foot upon an unknown land. The parental sea of guidance is now behind them and it reverently laps the shore where they have stepped.

Each passenger,
each Senior, must now make her way alone until she reaches her destination.

"Measure not life by the hopes and enjoyments of this world, but by the preparation it makes for another."

LAUGHING

ACTIVITIES

The magic of laughter adds warmth and charm to every girl, both here at N.D. and elsewhere.

A gentle smile
reflects the serenity and joy of life and transforms each student into an image of her patronness, Our Lady.

Secure in the knowledge of friendship and love, all Notre Dame girls know that they never walk alone--they are always followed by the shadow of a smile.

The laughter of girls is,
and always was, among the delightful sounds of the earth.
--De Quincey

SEPTEMBER

The Seniors imitate the determined efforts of their "Little Sisters" in trying to beat the bell.

"The Girls from A.U.N.T." join forces to make the publications drive a direct hit.

No priority today! "Big and Little Sisters" join in together at the barbecue.

Charlie Brown and company beg for support during the publications drive.

Broadcaster co-editors Renee LeSeure and Anne Lechtenberg aid editor Sue Harvey in reporting the school news.

OCTOBER

An atmosphere of peace and solitude settles over the Senior Retreat at King's House, Belleville, Ill. Prayer and meditation prevail during free moments.

Another day of Retreat comes to a close with Benediction.

Scenes from "Gigi", "Music Man", "Three Coins in a Fountain" transform CB gym into a Hollywood spectacular. And of course the evening isn't complete without Oscars.

Cheerleaders--Chuck Fitch, Larry Jansen, and Rich Higgins.

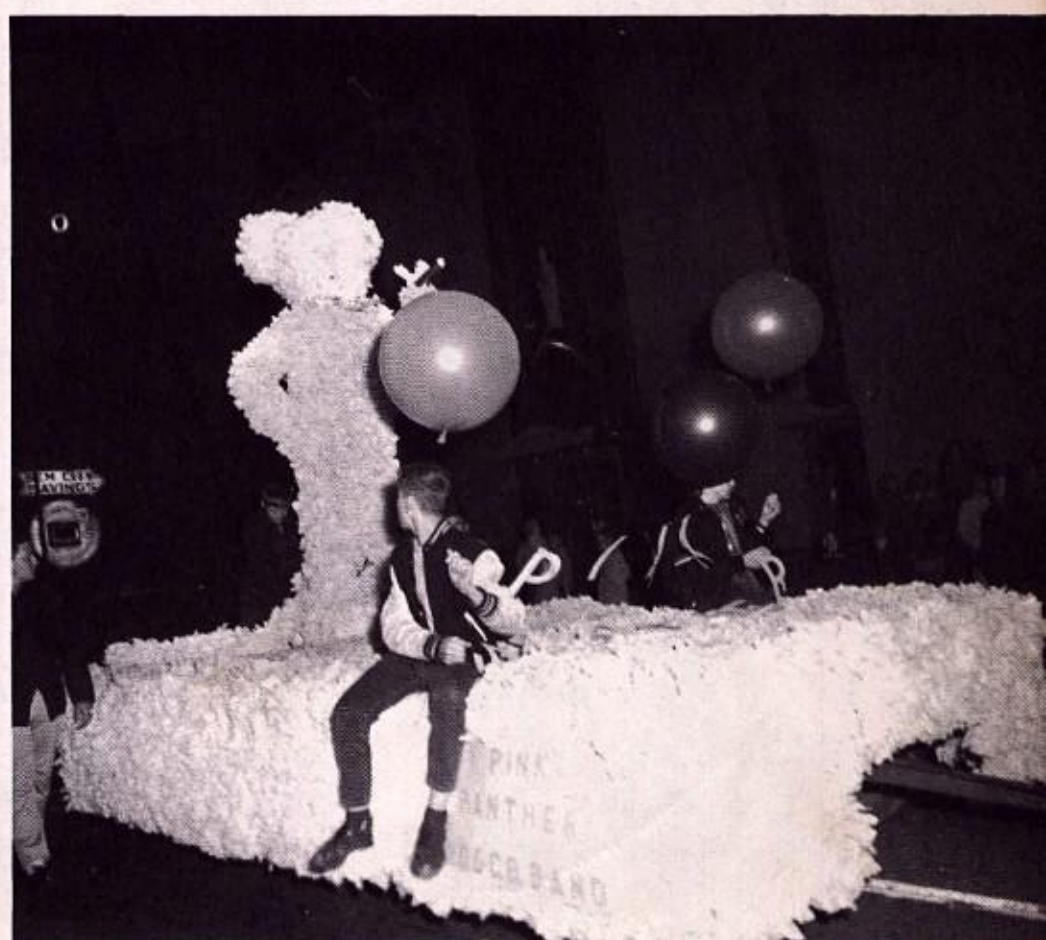

ND-CB Band entertains the Raider fans during halftime at one of the many football games. Much practicing and a lot of hard work go into the making of these performances which are enjoyed by all.

ND-CB BAND

The "Pink Panther" rides the ND-CB Band float.

Shari Miller

ND's Bazaar brings much happiness and fun to little girls and big girls too; in fact, everyone has fun. The main event of the day is always the delicious spaghetti dinner.

DECEMBER

Under the direction of Sr. Mary Arthen, the ND Special Chorus entertains at the Christmas Concert.

Depicting 19th Century carolers, the "Senior Nine" brings the holiday spirit to the audience.

Dance couples enjoy the music of Randy and the Ramblers at the Christmas Dance.

JANUARY

Memories are relived for Dads as the pages of a life-size Scrap Book come alive at Dad-daughter night.

FEBRUARY

Couples dance to the music of the Runaways. Corsages composed of everything imaginable are pinned on girls' escorts. The evening comes to a climax as Tish Kalmer crowns Mike Heitland King--another Twirp comes to a close.

MISSION DAY

While enjoying Mission Day youngsters exhaust their big sisters.

Queen Carol and her escort Roger Genebacher.

"I'd do anything for you . . . "

The Notre Dame Orchestra provides the background music for "Deb Delights."

M A R C H

Teens enjoy their favorite pastime as part of "Deb Delights."

Kathy Fiechtl and Pat Hodges tell Mel Koch and Tom Baker that "we've got elegance."

Linda Geers portrays Maria from the "Sound of Music" as she sings "Do Re Mi" to her eager listeners.

APRIL

The annual Spring Fashion show again was a highlight of Mother-daughter night. At left Donette Lenane models her Easter outfit. Above Mrs. Mohrman describes the creations of the home-ec students.

Miles and miles and miles of blue cheese cloth, twirled crepe paper and colorful flats all went into the making of another traditional event--ND's annual Theme Dance.

1965-1966 Student Council president Rosanne Wing congratulates president-elect Jan Frageman as the other officers look on. Retiring officers are (STANDING) Sharon Dueterhaus, secretary; JoAnne Frese, vice-president; Shari Miller, treasurer. Officers elect (SEATED) Cinda Awerkamp, Mary Bordewick and Rita Burton.

Waiting with intense anticipation are the 1966-1967 Student Council nominees and their campaign managers.

"Patty Rabbit" visits Future Teachers' Easter party for handicapped children.

A Latin American market scene comes to life as two Spanish students dance on Pan American Day.

The diploma--four years of hard work--is finally received from Rt. Rev. Mgsr. Peter F. Masterson aided by Mrs. Edgar Happekotte.

LOVING

ORGANIZATIONS

Hands extend in time and space . . .

they join . . . there is union.

Such are the organizations at Notre Dame.
Dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary, these clubs have but one goal in view-- improvement of oneself and of others.

The willing hearts and hands of each separate group extend in charity towards all; when joined with others, they form a chain of Christian love which can never be broken.

"To love is to place our happiness in the happiness of another."
